The Sugarloaf Explorer

The Sugarloaf Explorer bus system was established during the 2007-2008 ski season in response to the expanding needs of the Sugarloaf ski area to more efficiently transport on-mountain skiers. The service provides car-free transportation on a network of routes, linking neighborhoods on the mountain and in Carrabassett Valley with the Sugarloaf Base Lodge. Evening service allows access to the many amenities available on-mountain with evening service off-mountain to Carrabassett Valley on Friday and Saturday. The Sugarloaf Explorer bus system is open to the general public. All service is free of charge to passengers.

Sugarloaf Explorer is operated by Western Maine Transportation Services, a Regional Transportation Corporation serving western Maine since 1976. Sugarloaf Explorer bus service is supported by Maine DOT, USDOT, the town of Carrabassett Valley, home owners, condominium associations, Sugarloaf Resort and local businesses.
